RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 22nd September 1956

No. F.4(3)-NS/56.—In the context of the increasing importance of the National Savings Movement and the substantial contribution to the resources of the Second Five Year Plan, expected from Small Savings, a need has been felt of organising in a more effective manner the public co-operation which has been extended to it so far. In the Women's sector, the Central Advisory Committee of the Women's Savings Campaign has been functioning in this direction since, 1953, and Advisory Committees have been formed recently in certain States also towards this end. It has now been decided by the Government of India to have an All-India Committee formed at the Centre, which would co-ordinate the activities of the State Committees and give the benefit of its advice and active co-operation to the Government of India, in the running of the Movement. The Committee will be known as the National Savings Advisory Committee and will have its headquarters in Delhi.

2. The Committee will consist of the following for the present:—

Chairman:

Shri S. K. Patil, M.P.

Members:

1. Shri Sriman Narayan, M.P., General Secretary, A-I.C.C., New Delhi.
2. Smt. Hannah Sen, Chairman, Central Advisory Committee, Women's Savings Campaign, New Delhi.
3. Shri Bhupendra Singh Mann, M.L.A., PEPSU, Patiala.
4. Shri Bimal Chandra Sinha, Calcutta.
5. Dr. Raghubir Singh, M.P., New Delhi.
6. Shri H. C. Dasappa, M.P., New Delhi.
7. Shri T. S. Avinashilingam Chettiar, M.P., New Delhi.
8. Shri N. C. Kasliwal, M.P., New Delhi.
9. Shri Asoka Mehta, M.P., New Delhi.
10. Shri Purshottam C. Thakker, Bombay.
11. Shri Lalit Narayan Mishra, New Delhi.
12. Lala Bharat Ram, New Delhi.

13. The Director General, Posts and Telegraphs, New Delhi.
14. The National Savings Commissioner, Simla.—Member Secretary.

The Committee may also co-opt specialists in different fields e.g., eminent economists, bankers, sociologists, etc., as members, as and when necessary.

3. The functions of the Committee will be:

- (i) to co-ordinate and guide the activities of the Savings Advisory Committees in the States;
- (ii) to assist and advise the Government of India generally and on measures necessary to intensify the National Savings Movement in the country and to devise ways and means of popularising the Small Savings Scheme; and
- (iii) to advise the Government on specific organisational and publicity matters relating to the National Savings Movement which may be brought to its attention.
